Mr. Davidson said, "I am incredibly proud of the brand Sonder has become since we launched the company just over a decade ago. What started as an idea as a first-year university student in Montreal has now become a leading global brand providing our guests with unique technology and design-forward accommodations. With the foundation that we have built, I know it will be an exciting next chapter for Sonder fueled by growth, innovation, and delighting our guests every day. I have worked closely with Janice over the years and believe that she is best positioned to lead as interim CEO. It has been a privilege to work with such a passionate, driven, and innovative group of colleagues at Sonder to help fulfill my dream for what Sonder can be."

Mr. Davidson has been the visionary behind Sonder's mission to revolutionize hospitality, and now that the integration with Marriott International is complete, the time is right to transition leadership. During his tenure, Mr. Davidson grew Sonder into a leading hospitality brand generating several hundred million dollars of annual revenue, serving millions of guests across over 40 markets in nine countries across North America, Europe and the UAE.

Ms. Sears said, "Sonder was built on Francis' vision to create a new, alternative hospitality brand. His entrepreneurial spirit and visionary leadership have made Sonder into the global company and recognizable brand it is today. On behalf of the Board and all of our employees, I want to thank Francis for his tireless work and steadfast leadership. The Board is focused on identifying an outstanding executive to be Sonder's next CEO to best position the Company to capitalize on the positive trends we are seeing across the business.
